MATRIMONIAL.

Thomas B. Hale and Miss Belle Hazlett were married at Highland Wednesday.

Henry Hickson, aged 19, and Dora Stuart, 14, eloped from New Albany, Ind., and were married.

Miss Gussie Spencer, of St. Louis, has been twice married and twice divorced in the last three months.

A man at Gallipolis, O., censured his wife for going driving with a gentleman friend when she threw boiling water on him, badly scalding him.

Miss Kate Canifax, who left here last June to attend the Christian Endeavor Convention at San Francisco, surprised her friends here a few days ago by marrying Mr. Thomas I. Bohon at San Francisco.—London Echo.

Friends of the young lady here have been notified of the marriage of Miss Laura McAnnally, who spent several years at the College here with her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Hubbard, which occurred at Memphis Wednesday.

Kirby Beard, of Jefferson county, and Miss Nannie Swearingen, of Bullitt county, were married after midnight at Shepherdsville, after an exciting experience. Their horse ran away, their vehicle was smashed, but they finally made it.

Miss Charlotte Lewis Mason, one of Frankfort's most charming young women, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mason, and Mr. John Daniel Payne, a prominent Virginian, will wed on the evening of September 1, at "Scotland," the handsome country home of the Masons.

Mr. J. H. Pepples and Miss Linnie Lawrence, both of the Gilberts Creek section, were to have driven to Elder J. G. Livingston's residence late yesterday afternoon and married by that gentleman. The bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. W. E. Lawrence and is a very popular young lady, while the groom is an exceptionally clever gentleman and a good business man. The INTERIOR JOURNAL joins their many friends in congratulating the happy pair and in wishing them the best of everything this world affords.

Mr. G. T. Ashlock and Miss Lucy Long were married by Rev. W. S. Grinstead at her father's residence Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The groom is an industrious and thrifty young farmer of the Gilberts Creek section, who by his daily walk commands the admiration of his neighbors and all who know him. He is at present Vice Grand of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Stanford Lodge, No. 156, and is on hand at lodge hour nearly every meeting night, though he lives five miles away. The bride is the handsome 18 year old daughter of Mr. William Long, a farmer living near Gilberts Creek station, and is a general favorite, on account of her amiable disposition, with all who know her. They took the train here Wednesday for a visit to the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert House, at Tracy City, Tenn., and thence to the Nashville Exposition. The attendants were Miss Annie Ashlock and Mr. C. H. Burns; Miss Emily Long and Mr. William Hester. A bright future stands out prominently before this newly wedded pair and hosts of friends hope they will have "smooth sailing o'er life's fitful sea."

GETTING TOGETHER.

The Louisville Post has this sensible and timely article:

Senator Henry L. Martin declines to go under the log cabin, thus emphasizing the fact that the distinction between democracy and republicanism is ineradicable.

In Boyd county, democrats prefer to fuse with democrats to fusing with republicans or populists. They ignore the money question, adopt no resolutions and nominate democrats regardless of their opinion of the Chicago platform.

This is said to be a surrender; who surrendered? The truth is it is not a surrender, it is a reunion.

Democrats are ignoring their disagreements, making emphatic their points of agreement and getting together on the issues of to-day, not of yesterday.

William Spraggins, an uncle of Mrs. James Frye, of Hustonville, died near Powers, in Casey, Sunday morning. He was 70 odd years old and had been a successful merchant on Rolling Fork for years. Pneumonia was the trouble.

The trial of Dan Curry for killing John W. Corley has been continued till the January term of the Whitley circuit court. His lawyers claimed that the mobbing of his fellow-prisoner, Sullivan, had so shattered his nerves that he could not stand a trial.

Mr. Martin promotes it by refusing to go under the log cabin, just as democrats here promoted it by refusing to make up a fusion ticket with Mr. Todd. No wonder the republicans are worried. Worry them some more, democrats.

Richard Bacon, of Fayette county, fatally shot his own son, mistaking him for a burglar,

LANCASTER.

I neglected to note the death of Wm. Sebastian on the 14th. He was one of the oldest men in the county, being 87 years of age. He was a strict member of the Christian church, a moral, upright and popular man and left a respectable family and a host of friends.

Hon. B. B. King, candidate for State Senator, was here Monday trying to fix up his fences, which are badly broken. Messrs. J. W. Alcorn, H. T. Noel and P. M. McRoberts were among the distinguished attorneys attending court this week. Miss May Hughes took part in a private musical concert at Danville Tuesday night.

Mr. M. F. Elkin succeeded in getting 28 good citizens to join the Macabees Tent here. The degree team from Junction City came over and gave the secret work in a thorough and impressive manner, which proved that they have given the new ritual that study and attention which it so justly merits. The success of the order, both from a business and a lasting fraternal standpoint, is no longer a question.

W. S. Beazley, one of our most prominent traders, sold 124 cattle averaging about 1,600 pounds, to an Eastern firm at 5c. They are said to be the best bunch that ever left the county. A good crowd was in town Monday and the live stock market seemed to be a little stronger than usual. The loquacious J. D. Swope bought a plug horse at $27.50. George Brown sold a pair of mules at $175. Rice Benge reports sales as follows: Shoots at 3c; stock cattle at $3.55; horses $35 to $65 and aged mules at $70 to $100.

The Baptist Association brought a large crowd to town Tuesday and Wednesday and everybody seemed to take an interest in the proceedings. The Christ spirit in the sermons and the splendid music were highly appreciated by all. Rev. J. F. Williams, of Harrodsburg, preached the annual sermon at the Baptist church on Tuesday night and Rev. T. H. Plemons at the Christian church. There were about 175 delegates and ministers present and 26 churches with a membership of 4,000 were represented. J. L. Bruce was moderator and E. H. Eox, of Danville, was clerk. The next meeting will be held at Bruner's Chapel, Mercer county, in August, 1898.

The trial of the Turners, charged with the murder of Marion Sebastian, is in earnest in the circuit court, and it will not likely be concluded before Saturday, as about 80 witnesses having been summoned. Most of Tuesday and to 10 o'clock Wednesday was consumed in getting a jury and only a few of the Commonwealth witnesses have testified. The evidence so far is very much like that adduced at the examining trial. Mr. J. S. Owsley, Jr., made a strong statement of the case and an attempt is being made to prove that they followed Sebastian to Powell's store to provoke a difficulty. The attorneys for the defense are Capt. Herndon, Hons. R. H. Tomlinson and Robert Harding, Messrs. G. B. Swinebroad and L. L. Walker. Messrs. J. Mort. Rothwell, R. C. Warren and County Attorney Johnson assist in the prosecution.

VICINITY NEWS.

Al Field, with a company of miners, 60 strong, will be at Lexington Sept. 3rd.

Indictments against alleged toll-gate raiders were filed away at Lawrenceburg, and they go free.

Buckner McKee was acquitted at his examining trial for the killing of Jas. Travis at Lawrenceburg.

Wes Craer and Leander Moore were fatally hurt by the explosion of a boiler in a saw mill in Bell county.

The Richmond Climax says that a Negro woman got so full of religious fervor at a protracted meeting near there that she threw her baby in the air and it fell to the floor killing it instantly.

Jim Reedy sent up for 21 years for murder at Williamsburg thought he would take an appeal, but the lynching of Sullivan changed his mind and he begged to be taken at once to the pen. His wish was complied with.

William Spraggins, an uncle of Mrs. James Frye, of Hustonville, died near Powers, in Casey, Sunday morning. He was 70 odd years old and had been a successful merchant on Rolling Fork for years. Pneumonia was the trouble.

The trial of Dan Curry for killing John W. Corley has been continued till the January term of the Whitley circuit court. His lawyers claimed that the mobbing of his fellow-prisoner, Sullivan, had so shattered his nerves that he could not stand a trial.

Ernest Hogan, colored, who wrote, "All Coons Are Alike to Me," is a Kentucky product, raised in Bowling Green. He nets $400 a month in royalties from his song.

The St. Louis baby that only weighed a pound and could lay stretched out in a man's hand, is dead.

THOMAS ZANTZINGER MORROW.

The Louisville Commercial of the 24th contains a picture and sketch of the useful and busy life of Judge T. Z. Morrow, of Somerset, the present excellent circuit judge of his district and a candidate for re-election. Judge Morrow has been prominently before the public since the early 60s and always with honor to himself and credit to his constituency. Without detracting the least from his honorable opponent, Judge James Denton, who is also our friend, we can say of a truth that Judge Morrow deserves the highest consideration of his party, both for his long service for it and his efforts to give it tone and respectability by acting well his part.

He is a big hearted man, who scorns a little act and possesses a full sense of right and justice. Illustrative of this, we recall an action on his part which occurred when the writer first came to Kentucky to help build the Cincinnati Southern railroad. In our capacity as a contractor we had occasion to employ a large number of boys to drive carts. They came to us, got jobs and drew their pay. Afterwards their fathers combined to make us also pay them. Judge Morrow saw the injustice, appealed to the men and the suits were withdrawn, though under the law we might have had to pay twice. From that day to this we have always entertained the most kindly feelings for Judge Morrow and have felt great interest in him personally.

It is said that if he is given the office this time he will voluntarily retire at the end of the term, to spend the remainder of his days in the peace and contentment that winds up a well-spent life.

Hubble.

Old corn is selling here now at $1.50 on account of the fine prospect for new corn. But little of the wheat in this community has been sold yet. One dollar will move most of it when reached again.

Will Tumeys bought some 100 pound shoots of Eubanks Bros. for 3c. A. J. Rice bought some 600-pound yearlings in the West End for about 4c. A. C. Carman sold his 800-pound steers to Judge Robinson for $3.60.

H. B. Cox's dwelling on Boone's creek, burned Wednesday evening, supposed to have caught from the stove. No insurance. S. Dunbar has returned from Russell county and reports fine crops. George Wood and little daughter, Kate Lynn, are having chills and fever.

C. P. Underwood and family are going to visit their brother-in-law in Illinois soon. Mrs. Col. Rice gave a nice dinner to her friends Wednesday, in honor of her brother, Mr. T. M. Goodknight's birthday, and it is needless to say all enjoyed it greatly. Oscar Spratt has returned from Illinois to visit his parents and friends for a few days. He reports fine crops. Misses Fannie Spoonamore and Catherine Grinstead are visiting Miss Mattie White. Revs. Grinstead, Neal and Cramm are doing the proclaiming in the protracted meeting here. There has been one sanctification up to date and the church somewhat revived. Mrs. Mollie Buckley, of Ohio, is visiting her father, J. W. Eubanks for a few days.

DEATH.—Mrs. Eliza McCormack, colored, wife of the blind pensioner, Martin McCormack, died on the 21st, aged 47 years. She had been an invalid for 20 years and a member of the A. M. E. church for 21 years. She was buried on the 22d in the presence of quite a crowd of old friends and neighbors. The husband, three daughters and two sons survive here. She was an honorable, unassuming colored woman and was well respected by the white and colored people of the community in which she resided. She said she was going home to rest. Her funeral was preached by Rev. J. W. Stanton, of the A. M. E. church, and Rev. General Jarman, of the Christian church.

G. W. C.

The most expensive book ever published is the official history of the war of the rebellion, now being issued by the government. Up to the present time it has cost $2,300,000. Few will ever read it.

HUSTONVILLE.

John S. Goode sold to Sam Owens 10 good 2-year-old cotton mules at $47 each and delivered same this week.

No wheat is current at $1 in our market this week. The combination refused this price and is holding for $1.10.

Geo. and Annie Nikirk, of Springfield, and the Misses Newbolds, of Bradfordsville, are visiting Miss Mamie Frye.

A return game of base ball between Hustonville and Perryville was played here on Wednesday and resulted in a defeat for the home team.

Protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church here on Sunday next. Their earnest and zealous pastor, Bro. Coleman, will be in charge.

Bro. W. W. Bruce and family will be home this week. We are glad to learn of his improved condition from rheumatism. He will fill his pulpit here next Sunday.

Every change of teachers in our public school of late years means a change of text books—an increase in the number of studies. Ask Cole Carpenter who carrying too many books to school did to him to keep him out of the sheep trade.

An interesting and closely contested game of base ball between Hustonville and Kingsville nines was played here on Saturday. The score was 11 to 14 in favor of the former. There was no grumbling in this game as was the case on the game Saturday before.

John W. Reid has traded his residence on Main Street, the old Cooper Hotel property, to John Dinwiddie for his residence on Western Avenue and $650 to boot, so I am informed. The opinion seems to prevail that we are to have another hotel in town in the near future.

Our community is being flooded with (deserters) gold bug literature. "Marse Henri," the stroke of whose able pen once formed opinions for thousands, but now, with only the following of a corporal's guard, is doubtless gladly furnishing the State chairman of the "deserters" a long list of his former subscribers and especially in that territory covered largely by that valued sheet whose editor has upon several occasions given him such a decent drubbing that it reminds one strikingly, not so much of the "champion knock-out blow," as the case of David and Goliath. Now that the C.-J.'s great editor is dead? I nominate Bro. Walton to the vacancy, is there a second?

Quite a delightful party was given by Miss Elizabeth Hunn at her beautiful country home, "Richland Residence," near Hustonville. The spacious rooms of the lower floor were thrown open, and decked in banks of ferns, palms and other plants. The brilliant lights, beautifully dressed girls and handsome beaux, together with the mass of flowers, converted the place into a bower of beauty. The charming hostess in her usual graceful manner saw that everyone enjoyed himself to the utmost. The assembled guests whiled away the time in social chat, music, etc., and before leaving repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous supper was served, on a table, beautifully decked with roses and ferns. It had almost reached the "smo' wee hours" when the assembled crowd reluctantly said, "good night."

The Kentucky Growers' Fire Insurance Company, in which the farmers of Lincoln county are so largely interested, held their annual meeting at their home office in Lexington, Tuesday, Aug. 17, 1897. The Legislative Board is composed of W. P. Cox, of Anderson, D. W. Dunn, of Boyle, A. J. Gorham, of Fayette, Sidney Bedford, of Franklin, G. T. Higginbotham, of Garrard, A. L. Chrismann, of Jessamine, John K. Baughman, of Lincoln, A. H. Vassant, of Mercer, J. A. Logan, of Shelby, and C. S. Williams, of Woodford; executive board—J. E. Delph, president, R. B. Kendall, secretary, L. P. Spurr, J. D. Hinton, W. H. Warren and J. C. Bosworth. After an examination of the business for the past year the Legislative Board find the company in a flourishing condition and that the losses have only cost the insured 26c per $100. Farmers desiring to save money will find it to their interest to consider this system of protection against fire, lightning and wind. Call on John K. Baughman, chairman of the Lincoln county board, at Hustonville, or W. R. Williams, county solicitor, Hustonville, who will call, give you rates and by-laws of the company, &c., or address R. B. KENDALL, Gen. Man., Lexington, Ky.

Jim Reed sent up for 21 years for murder at Williamsburg thought he would take an appeal, but the lynching of Sullivan changed his mind and he begged to be taken at once to the pen. His wish was complied with.

INCENSED at the charge that he had employed detectives to shadow Mayor Todd, of Louisville, and indignant that such agencies had been employed to hound him by cowardly scoundrels, Gov. Bradley says: "Whenever I feel that a man has acted the scoundrel with me sufficiently to authorize re-sentiment, I will not employ detectives to hunt him down, but will seek other and more manly methods of redress." And Mayor Todd knows if he knows anything and everybody else knows, who knows the governor that he means what he says. We have had many a bout with Bradley in the last score of years, but we always found him manly foe, who scorned to hit below the belt. Hot tempered and irascible, he sometimes goes off half cocked, like many of us do, but like all men whose hearts are in the right place, he is the quickest one we ever saw to right a wrong if he make one or to meet a man half way in reconciliation, if that man is otherwise worthy.

BRER HINDMAN is at last in his glory. The Courier-Journal says he has begun his campaign and will speak almost every day till the election. And Jim do love to talk! He is emphatically and everlasting struck on his own voice and imagines that he is an orator from away back. "I say things in such an entertaining kind of a way," he said in his speech accepting the nomination for appellate clerk that the people will hear him. Brer Hindman did not intend to be egotistic in this remark. He just spoke his mind. He makes speeches on every occasion, in the prayer meeting, in the Sunday school, in the W. C. T. U., at the post-office, on the street corner, everywhere he can get even one auditor. And they do say that he has been known to awaken his mother-in-law at the dead of night to "argufy" a point that escaped him during the day.

JUDGE MORROW called the grand jury before him at Williamsburg and delivered an additional charge that the lynching of Sullivan be fully investigated and the guilty parties brought to justice, but that is probably the end of it. Grand juries never find out much about mobs and in this case they will make no strenuous effort to do so. Sullivan only got what he deserved. Pity 'tis that the law hadn't avenged the crime instead of the mob.

In the rush of matter and the crush of preparing for the promised prosperity, we failed to mention the Hopkinsville Kentucky's splendid centennial edition recently sent out. It was composed of 24 pages and the interesting write-ups were profusely illustrated with half tones, which were printed as clearly as photographs. When Editor Meacham goes a cattin', he goes a catin' and sees 'em all one or two better in the game.

THE good news comes that Editor Dan E. O'Sullivan has decided not to accept that big New York paper's offer but instead will stay in Louisville, revive the Critic and draw that $2,000 a year as member of the board of public works. With Sullivan to make his life miserable and Forrester to make him long for death, Mayor Todd will doubtless feel like the pains of hell have got hold upon him already.

THE three Hagens brothers made their calling for county clerk, circuit clerk and county superintendent in Breathitt county all right at the primary the other day. It remains to be seen if they can make their election as sure. Voters are not generally very much inclined to regard the offices as the private snap of one family and too much greediness may ruin them all.

AN interesting event is scheduled to occur in the Cleveland household in October, but since the frequent arrivals have become monotonous and the old man has fallen into the innocuous desuetude he was wont to describe, public interest, is not as great as when little Ruth was expected. A birth at Princeton isn't like a birth at the White House any way.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer, speaking of last year's campaign, says: "Two superannuated and straddling politicians made themselves ridiculous in American political history, for the benefit of the gold speculators."

Palmer and Buckner, in unison and sotto voce, "I wonder, if he means us?"

MANY newspapers and numbers of prominent women are interesting themselves in the case of the beautiful Cuban girl, Evangeline Cossio Cisneros, condemned by Wyler's brutal minions to 20 years' imprisonment in Spain's foulest prison for a crime she could not possibly be guilty of. The New York Journal publishes the names of the fair petitioners asking the release of the girl, which requires several pages and includes many Kentucky ladies.

NO one who has ever seen the Hon. James R. Richardson, of the Glasgow Times, will think for an instant that he is the hero in the serial he is about to publish entitled "Beautiful Jim." There have been a great many things said about Editor Jim, good, bad and indifferent, but no one ever accused him of being pretty.

ACCORDING to the Courier Journal Bre'r Hindman is burning the woods with his eloquence down in Southern Kentucky. We always said that that man Hindman is a great man and we are glad that everybody is being convinced that he is the greatest thing on wheels.

THE G. A. R. encampment at Buffalo, N. Y., is attended by 350,000 veterans and others. President McKinley reviewed the parade, in which there were 50,000 men in line, and made a speech full of patriotism and good feeling for all the sections. The meeting next year will likely be at Cincinnati.

WE have all along been convinced that Shackelford would carry the State by 25,000, but since hearing that Josiah Patterson was coming to Kentucky to make 11 speeches, we raise the limit to 25,011. Josiah had better remain at home and fix his fences if he has any.

DR. HUNTER announces his purpose of retiring from politics. Politics seem to have retired from Hunter some time ago.

POLITICS

It is said that Capt. James Thompson will get the Harrodsburg post-office.

Miss Margaret Ingles, of Paris, who made Bryan speeches, wants to be State Librarian.

Warden Happy's attorneys demurred Clerk Caufield's suit for damages out of court at Eddyville.

Judge C. D. Webb, who used to set type in this office, was renominated for police judge of Paris by 26 votes.

A. T. Herd has been succeeded as United States Marshal James' chief deputy by Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter's son.

It is said that A. T. Herd, Hunter's former private secretary, has skipped because of some crooked financial transactions.

Mr. E. H. Hilpp, the excellent mail messenger on this division, is an applicant for post-office inspector for Kentucky, with good chances of success.

Congressman Dorr, of West Virginia, is a sweet scented shrub. He is charged with loaning his railroad pass and with insulting a young lady in a sleeping car.

The pop will not have to petition to get on the official ballot, Gen. Taylor holds, as their vote for Congressman was more than 2 per cent. of the total vote last fall.

It is reported from Washington that Congressman Dave Colson will retire in favor of Judge Bereing, of London, when another nomination is due in the 11th district, which is doubtless untrue.

And now it is the Feeble Minded Institute. The commissioners pronounce Superintendent Huff incompetent, have discharged his wife as matron and have practically taken charge of the institution.

Louis O'Donnell has been appointed superintendent of mails in Louisville to succeed John D. Woods, Jr. Mr. Woods has been transferred to the position of postal clerk. He is a son of the editor of the Bowling Green Courier.

U. S. commissionership is to be established at Mt. Vernon and the following persons have applied for the office: James I. White, S. D. Lewis, Dr. S. C. Davis, J. S. Joplin, J. B. Fish and Sam Ward. It will be settled September 1, when Judge Barr returns from his summer vacation.

Collector Yerkes announces the following appointments: Bland Ballard, chief deputy to succeed W. L. Crutcher; James H. Surber, of Junction City, cashier, to succeed S. B. White; Miss Ora Wilmore, stamp deputy, at Nicholasville, to succeed J. L. Simpson and C. W. Petty, stamp deputy at Lawrenceburg, to succeed Judge J. M. Pooley.

Hon. H. W. Howard, of Alabama, who wrote "If Christ Came to Congress," will arrive in Kentucky next week to take the stump in the interest of Populist Jo A. Parker's candidacy for clerk of the court of appeals. If he can speak no better than he can lecture the other parties will be the makers by his coming. His lecture in Stanford disgusted everybody.

The democratic county committee in Laurel made the following nominations: For Representative, B. R. Barker; County Judge, J. P. Sasser; Circuit Clerk, G. Y. Denham; County Clerk, Mat Pointer; Attorney, P. F. Stillings; Superintendent, D. R. Hamock; Sheriff, J. P. Foster; Assessor, Ed

Schalk; Jailer, G. B. Hale; Surveyor, James McHargue; Coroner, J. T. Carriger. P. F. Stillings declined the nomination tendered him.

The decline in the value of silver is not a matter for rejoicing, but rather for severe regret, because we are the largest producers of silver in the world, and it is of interest and profit to all of us that all our products should be remunerative to the producers. The regret is also allied with some anxiety, for the lower in value silver falls the more difficult it may become to keep our silver coinage upon a parity with gold, as the government has pledged itself to do.—Louisville Commercial.

News Briefly Told

Bernard Doyle, of Vincennes, Ind., committed suicide because he could not find work.

Curley Chief, one of the most noted Pawnee Indians, is dead near Perry, Oklahoma, aged 100.

In Todd county John Johnson shot and killed John Andrews and fatally wounded Tom Andrews.

The average crop of peanuts raised in the U. S. is 44,000,000 bushels and in the world 600,000,000 bushels.

Hiram Hall, who drowned his wife in a well at Sparta, Tenn., was removed to Nashville for safe keeping.

Miss Anna Nold's Louisville school will not open again. She will go to New York to follow her profession.

Three Negroes were killed in a battle between whites and blacks at Martin's ore mine, in Bibb county, Ala.

John Anderson, a Chicago lawyer, attempted suicide when he lost a case in which he had a big contingent windfall.

Lightning struck P. A. Beach, while driving along the road near Walton and he was killed. The horse was not hurt.

Seymore Gray, who was to have been hanged next day for murder, broke jail at Fayetteville, W. Va., and is still at large.

W. W. Whitehead, former assessor of Carroll county, died of injuries sustained in falling out of a third-story window.

The Rev. Thomas Hawthorne was strangled to death by falling and getting his head between palings, near Vanceburg.

Will Tutt, a burly Negro, murdered his wife in cold blood at Mayfield, and an infuriated mob of blacks clammed up for his blood.

Former Sheriff George H. Steel and Deputy Sheriff Sam Young fought with pistols at Hyden, Leslie county, and both were killed.

During a runaway near Massillon, O., the reins became entangled about Miss Mabel Findlay's neck and she was dragged to death.

Mary and Rebecca Jones, sisters, slashed each other with pen-knives in Knott county. The former's face is horribly disfigured.

Jasper Edwards and Charles Ambers, farmers living near Bloomington, Ill., were killed by a tree which blew down on the shanty they were sheltering in.

Thomas Harlan, of Elkhart, Ind., didn't know the pistol he was handling was loaded and the discharge that followed fatally wounded his aged mother.

"Dutch" Shane, a 16-year-old tough of Morgantown, W. Va., loaded himself with whisky and shot two men fatally in his effort to break up a camp meeting.

Mrs. Josephine Pfender, of Dayton, O., crazed on the subject of religion, attempted to kill her three children, which she says she intended to offer as a sacrifice.

P. B. Garrison, a Fayette county youth, was so startled by a vivid flash of lightning that his mind instantaneously left him. He has been placed in the asylum.

President Borda, of Uruguay, was shot and killed by an assassin at Montevideo Wednesday. At the time of the assassination President Borda was participating in a fete in celebrating of the independence of the republic.

Coi. W. L. Crabb, of the Fibel & Crabb distillery company, was arrested on warrants sworn out by Cashier Wilson, of the Oldham Bank, charging him with unlawful transfer of whisky from a free warehouse and whisky in bond.

Mrs. Charlotte Smith, who wants to solve the labor problem by compelling all the bachelors to marry, thus taking so many women out of the industrial field, seems to be the advance agent of a kindergarten trust.—Louisville Journal.

Judge J. W. Edwards, of Louisville, one of the best known jurists in the South, is a raving maniac. For the past 15 months Judge Edwards has been confined at the home of his son, in Hart county, but no one suspected that his mind was affected.

Jerry Brown, a Negro ravisher, was hung at Fayetteville, W. Va., Tuesday under guard of the State troops, to prevent his rescue. He laughed and smoked while the rope was being adjusted and seemed to think it was all mighty funny. The woman he ravished witnessed the execution.

The democratic county committee in Laurel made the following nominations: For Representative, B. R. Barker; County Judge, J. P. Sasser; Circuit Clerk, G. Y. Denham; County Clerk, Mat Pointer; Attorney, P. F. Stillings; Superintendent, D. R. Hamock; Sheriff, J. P. Foster; Assessor, Ed

Isaac Hubbard sold to R. B. Woods 22 hogs averaging 190 pounds at 3c.

J. H. Smith sold to Charles Anderson of Garrard, two steer calves at 18c.

Woods & Lynn bought at Lancaster Monday a bunch of 700-pound cattle at 3.65.

A Shelby county farmer's wheat crop averaged 46 bushels an acre on 62 acres.

W. R. Rice sold to George Cogar, of Danville, 2,000 bushels of wheat at $1 and the toll.

Rice & Rice, of the Hedgeville section, bought of Robert Nunneley 11 yearlings at 3.85.

Sales of 40, 1,240-pound cattle, at 4.17 and 10 work mules at $50 are reported in the Georgetown Times.

There are lively transactions in corn also in Chicago. September is quoted at 29c and December 31.

W. R. Rice bought of J. S. Murphy a pair of horse mules for $120 and of Dr. Steele Bailey a mare mule for $77.50.

Leading London speculators and millers express the belief that the high price of wheat will be maintained for a long time.

Wheat slumped to 91c in Chicago Tuesday owing to heavy unloading and a desire to realize, but crawled up to 93c next day.

W. S. Drye is at Hustonville working a number of young horses for John K. Baughman and fixing up a string for the Liberty fair.

Star Pointer and Joe Patchen, the phenomenal pacers, have been engaged to appear at the October meeting at the Louisville trotting track.

Taylor M. Estes has sold his bay gelding, Quicksilver, to A. J. Coleman, of Lexington, for $900. He made a record of 2:24 at the Marion Fair.—Fallon.

During the 10 days of Kentucky's big trotting meeting at Lexington, Oct. 5th to 16th, $74,500 in stakes and purses will be distributed—more money than is offered by any trotting association in the world.

George Bohon bought 2,000 acres from the Shakers in Mercer for $60,000. This is the first transfer of real estate made by the Shakers since their settlement was organized, more than 30 years ago.

Dun says of corn: Although some gain has occurred in sympathy with the leading cereal, the crop outlook and enormous receipts tend to depress prices, and a prompt reaction would follow if the support of the wheat markets were withdrawn.

Mr. W. M. Cooper, the sheep man of Pulaski, was on Wednesday's Southbound train. He told us that he had handled nearly 5,000 sheep during the last seven weeks and that he got from $1.05 to $2.35 for them.

L'Alouette won the rich Futurity for two-year-olds at Sheepshed Bay Tuesday, with Lydian second and Uriel third. The winner got about $30,000. Previous Dwyer's entry, and one of the favorites, was left at the post.

A dispatch from Harrodsburg says that J. E. Cogar & Co., and Curry & Forsythe have purchased between 30,000 and 40,000 bushels of wheat during the past two days, paying $1 for it, but that many farmers are holding for a further rise.

Montie Fox, agent for Lehman, bought yesterday of Hon. J. S. Owsley, Sr., 100 export cattle, averaging 1,450 pounds, at 4.65. Mr. Fox also bought Wednesday and yesterday in Marion and Garrard counties 130 exporters at 4c to 4.65.

At a sale of leaf tobacco Wednesday in Louisville one hoghead brought $29 per 100 pounds, and 108 hogheads averaged $16.76 per 100. The highest price was $5 per 100 higher than tobacco had sold heretofore this year, and is the highest quotation for many years.

The market is very strong.—Courier Journal.

THE talented little elocutionist, Miss Lou Clark, of Boyle, has, we are glad to note, succeeded in getting up a class here to teach her beautiful art. She will commence about the middle of September and give two lessons a week.

HOME NEWS.

SCHOOL clock 98c at Danks'.

SCHOOL books at W. B. McRoberts'.

MIXED Spices at Warren & Shanks'.

LUNCH Baskets and Boxes all sizes at Warren & Shanks'.

It gets dryer and drier with no sign of rain or promise of any. "Fair, Friday, warmer."

THE new style of fall hats are covered with feathers and the women are to wear them at a jaunty angle on the side of their heads.

ARM BROKEN.—George Huston, of Hustonville, had one of his arms broken while loading cross ties at McKinney a few days ago.

THE opening day of the College for the school year of 1897-98 will be Monday, Sept. 6. By that time the building and grounds will be put in good condition. Let there be a large enrollment of pupils on the opening day.

SALE.—Hiram Powell, son of Mr. C. D. Powell, the Lancaster merchant, has bought of Lilburn Gooch his house and three acres of land at Gilberts Creek station for $1,300. Mr. Powell will open a general merchandise store there about Jan. 1.

PEACHES.—Deputy Collector James M. Carter left a basket of the finest peaches we ever saw at this office Wednesday. We did not weigh them, but judging from their immense size they must have weighed two pounds each and they were as delicious as they were immense. As one good turn deserves another, it is hoped Mr. Carter will call again when similarly laden.

A FRAUD OF CORPSES.—Morris Fred, of the Gilberts Creek Mills, is 36 years old and has never seen a dead person and never until last Sunday had he seen an open grave. The thought of a corpse unnerves him and he has studiously avoided the sight of one. His home was in Louisville, where he had a wife and five children. He was in good shape financially, owning several handsome residences in that city. His body and face were fearfully disfigured while his head was almost severed. The wreck was a costly one to the company. Traffic was delayed 12 hours or more and of a consequence No. 25 did not arrive here till 9:30 yesterday.

NEW waist sets, links, dress pins, pearl studs. Danks, the Jeweler.

CAN it be that the Hon. J. N. Saunders has flopped? Perish the thought!

THE Stanford brass band has been engaged to make music for the Liberty fair, Sept. 8, 9 and 10.

A DISPATCH from Danville says that George Reno, a Negro ex-convict, was shot and instantly killed by Night Policeman John Cramm. The officer caught him stealing and the Negro resisted arrest.

THE tax books are now ready and you will please come forward and settle at once. This is my last year and unless your taxes are paid you may expect to see your property advertised. T. D. Newland, S. L. C.

MOST of the farmers in this section are holding their wheat for a higher price and so far money hasn't got into circulation much. The crop is said to be very short in many parts of the world and that the price may go higher, but you can't always tell. It might not.

THE L & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Williamsburg at one fare on Aug. 31, good to return Sept. 4, on account of the Whitley county fair. A rate of $1.40 for the round trip will be given to Richmond on account of Robinson & Franklin's circus to-day. The London fair rate this week is one fare for both ways.

RWARD.—I will give $10 reward for the return of my watch lost between W. P. Grimes' and Mrs. Beazley's on Logans Creek, or between there and my home on the Danville pike. The works are Waltham, case gold and made by Duhring & Co., Cin., O., with my initials on outside of it. T. L. Lillard.

FATAL AND COSTLY WRECK.—The third section of freight train No. 36 ran into the rear end of the second section, which was the Northbound local, at Boston, about 6:30 Wednesday evening, causing a fearful wreck and costing the life of James Scanlon, the engineer of the third section. The trouble seemed to have been with the second section which had failed to set its danger flag far enough back. Tommy Warren, the conductor, and John Rose, the head brakeman of the third section, and Fireman Keogh, who jumped, were all considerably bruised and otherwise painlessly hurt. Mr. Aubrey Fishback, stenographer for Master of Trains B. N. Roller, was on Scanlon's engine, and he also had a narrow escape. He jumped as soon as he realized the situation thus saving his life and got off with only a few scratches on his face and a slightly sprained wrist. Engineer James Kearns and Conductor H. C. Eaton were in charge of the local and neither of them, nor their crew was hurt. The engine was badly torn up as were a number of cars, including a car load of sheep, of which a number were killed. James Scanlon, the unfortunate, was one of the oldest engineers on the road and one of the best. His home was in Louisville, where he had a wife and five children. He was in good shape financially, owning several handsome residences in that city. His body and face were fearfully disfigured while his head was almost severed. The wreck was a costly one to the company. Traffic was delayed 12 hours or more and of a consequence No. 25 did not arrive here till 9:30 yesterday.

FOR STEALING WHEAT.—Policeman Warren, of Harrodsburg, was here Wednesday in search of John Meadows, colored, wanted there for stealing wheat, and he and Marshal Newland bagged him after considerable hunt.

THE Concord Baptist association censured Dr. Whitsitt and asked for his immediate resignation.

The Lutheran year book reports 1,428,693 communicants, a gain of a half-million in the last 10 years.

Rev. J. B. Crouch will begin a protracted meeting at the Baptist church at Hustonville Sunday morning.

At the prayer meeting at the Christian church Wednesday night, John H. Shanks united with the church and was baptized by Rev. W. E. Ellis.

THE Brodhead fair management through President E. E. Protheroe has sent the INTERIOR JOURNAL a nice letter of thanks for the assistance it gave the enterprise, which we highly appreciate. The letter also says: We have a surplus left. It is our wish to use it in improving the grounds, putting up nice attractive buildings, and making the grounds beautiful. We wish too, to make several free rings especially for ladies' decorative work and increase premiums otherwise. We will also build a special building for all rings excepting stock.

THE old INTERIOR JOURNAL base ball club gathered itself together the other afternoon and defeated the Stanford team by a score of 12 to 11. The following gentlemen composed the I. J. team: Messrs. T. A. Rice, A. H. Severance, George B. Dunn, W. F. Sherill, J. T. Embry, G. L. Penny, C. A. Moore, Harvey Helm, C. E. Tate and Thompsons Wearen and the game they played would have been a credit to professionals. Sheridan on first didn't make an error, Rice and Severance as pitchers, won additional laurels, Dunn caught a fine game, Embry on second, Moore on third and Penny at short discounted any playing here since the I. J. disbanded, while Helm, Tate and Wearen did fielding that may yet land them in professional clubs. Will Embry umpired quite satisfactorily.

THE Stanford team isn't satisfied that the old boys can best them so they challenged them for another game, which will occur near Mrs. Lou Shanks' at 3:30 this P. M.

The Tates Creek association will be held here next year.

Rev. George O. Barnes is now holding forth in Georgetown.

Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach at the Christian church at 11 A. M. Sunday.

Rev. J. K. Nunneley, of Georgetown, will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

WAYNESBURG,

Aunt Sally Reynolds is still very low. C. B. Marcum will teach the Lake school and will begin next Monday.

H. J. Williams, of Hubble, is visiting relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

Messrs. Tucker and Glass have been buying more calves in this vicinity the last few days.

There was a grand picnic at William Morgan's last Saturday and we learn that Blackberry wine and stronger refreshments flowed freely and black eyes and bloody noses were numerous and if anybody went away without having a chance to show his hand at fighting it was because he did not make it known.

Mrs. Virginia Adams, of Fremont, gave birth to triplets, two girls and a boy, last week, making 10 children at four births, triplets twice and two sets of twins.

Mrs. Mary Marimon, grand-mother of Editor R. L. Marimon, of the Harrodsburg Sayings, fell and broke her arm. She is 89.
